Organizations Fall into Shape

Fall '80 was a busy time for organizations; each electing officers, initiating new members, and raising funds by selling items ranging from fruit to tupperware. One especially busy club, the band, received a first division rating at the U.I.L. Marching Contest held on November 11.

1. FHA president, Cindy Creekmur, crowns Toby White "King Pie Eater" at an assembly during homecoming week. 2. FFA members eagerly unload fruit. 3. Lori Brown, Robbi Young, Cheryl Elliott and Christy Chiles proudly show-off the U.I.L. first division trophy won by the band in Lufkin. 4. Football Dominates the Season

Have you ever heard of a town named Gary? was a familiar question asked among Mustang supporters. Gary was one of the many new schools added to Overton's schedule due to the University Interscholastic League's elimination of Class B schools with the addition of Class 5A. Although some schools advanced a class, Overton stayed in Class A and the previous year's Class B schools came into Overton's district.

1. Senior, Vincent Ragsdale, makes his way through the L.C. Lions for six points. 2. Tres Rouquette leads the way for Chip Graham to gain ten yards. 3. Eighth grader, Weldon Kennedy, scrambles for yardage. 4. Steve Feazell, Bobby Windham, Ronnie Davis, and Martin Little take a break from the hot, summer practice. 5. Dena Graham and Mary Sanders watch as Jackie Hawkins prepares to "sock" the volleyball. 6. Anxious and determined to win the game, the Volleyball B. team breaks the huddle. 7. Involvement High on Fridays

Between the sultry heat of Labor Day and the chilly winds of Thanksgiving are days uniquely different from the rest. Days when lockers rattle with "Who's Gonna Win This Game Tonight?"; shortened afternoon classes allow for the 3 p.m. pep rally in the gym; junior high guys load the band instrument bus; cheerleaders make an all-out, last minute, effort to sell spirit ribbons; and the Mighty Mustangs battle it out on 100 yards of green turf. It's FRIDAY!

Homecoming Week ignites Spirit

Homecoming week, October 6-10, was crammed full of exciting events. The activities were announced on Monday during an assembly called by the Student Council. The week's schedule was: Tuesday - Sock Day, Wednesday - Crazy Hat Day, Thursday - Fifties Day, and Friday - Green and White Day. Other highlights included a pie eating contest held at the Thursday afternoon assembly in the gym, a Friday morning pep rally, and culminated downtown for the traditional Friday afternoon pep rally.

1. Periann Allen and Dena Graham receive a helping hand from Alan Gieb at the downtown pep rally. 2. Students beam on Hat Day, since school has been dismissed at noon due to all water being cut-off. 3. Congratulations are in order for Mary Sanders and Joey Johnson, voted Best Dressed on Fifties Day. 4. Representative of many feet on Sock Day are those of Leslie Pitts and Becky Mallette. 5. Seniors: Greg Lovett, Jeff Grammier, Richard Wilson, and Gary Clark cheer pie eater, Toby White, to victory by chanting "Eat, Toby, Eat!". 6. Coach Maynard seeks the support of the fans for the homecoming game. 7. Mary Rice Rouquette, Amy Stribble, and David Riddle anxiously await the start of practice for Friday evening's ceremony. 8. Bringing the fifties back to life are these eighth grade girls. 9. Elementary students prefer downtown pep rally to afternoon academics. 10. Seniors, Gretta Carter and Rexann Grandstaff spread spirit chains which reveal that the seniors have won! 11. Mr. Beene and his musicians set the tempo for pep rally. 12. Anxiety is obvious among football players at the homecoming pep rally.

Evening's Spotlight on Leanne

Parents gather on the sideline with their cameras. Billie Jackson checks to make sure each member of the court is in place. Christy Chiles prepares her notes in the press box. The band, now on the field, begins to play "Daybreak". It is now 7 p.m. on October 10 and the pregame Homecoming ceremony has begun. The queen nominees are announced after the duchesses and dukes have taken their places. They are: Periann Allen, Leanne Austin, Susan Cox, and Donanne Skeen. The votes have been counted and "The 1980-81 Homecoming Queen is Miss Leanne Austin."

1. Jeff Grammier kisses Queen Leanne Austin, as Shawn Gaddis, Patti Stephens, and Cindy Wright patiently wait. 2. Recently crowned queen, Leanne Austin enjoys the half-time show with Jeff Grammier. 3. Eighth and seventh grade duchesses, Angie Kilgore and Tina Hankins, anxiously wait for the pre-game ceremony to begin. 4. Joey Johnson and Paul Brown battle for yards. 5. Missy Gardner, Vicki Graham, Rexann Grandstaff, and Margaret Montgomery are spell-bound by the activity on the field. 6. Duchess Cindy Furqueron assists her cousin, Donanne Skeen, as she prepares for the Homecoming Queen Coronation. 7. Felicia Rinehart, Teresa Utsey, Christy Chiles, Sonja Smith, Robbi Young, Cheryl Elliott, Martha and Tracy McCartor smile as they finish their hat routine to the theme song of "Dallas". 8. Sixth graders: Lisa Webb, Melynda Wright, Leann Jackson, and Laura Bell arrive early to insure a good seat. 9. Student Council Secretary, Christy Chiles, has the honor of announcing the 1980 Homecoming Queen and court. 10. The elementary court members are: Shawn Gaddis and Patti Stephens, Kindergarten; John Glover and Amy Duncan, 1st; David Croteau and Angela Cagle, 2nd; Scott Davis and Mary Rice Rouquette, 3rd; David Riddle and Amy Stribble, 4th; Dean Sims and Holly Welch, 5th; and Randy Stanley and Carla Stephens, 6th. 11. Robbi Young pins Cheryl Elliot's mum back on after the twirlers' performance. 12. Glendale Whitten, Tommy Hooten, and Lou Hankins watch as the Homecoming court is announced. Glendale Hankins Whitten, 1954 graduate, and Lou Hankins are especially proud of Lou's three daughters that are participating. Tommy Hooten quarterbacked the 1963 Mustangs, his senior year.

Shari Turner performs her Christmas monologue before the student body. 15. Gary Clark pauses for the laughter received by his reading of "A Cajun Christmas".

Band's Sweepstakes is Grand Finale

During the winter months, Overton students kept very busy with a large selection of activities. The band was especially busy preparing for their contest on March 11, where they brought home the coveted Sweepstakes trophy. But there were also other activities like the Speech Club Christmas Party, the Library Club's Val-o-gram sale and the band's Chicken and Dressing Dinner. These activities helped pass the cold winter months!!

1. The cake says it all: OHS BAND SWEEPSTAKES WINNER! 2. Gary Clark and Robbi Young find gag gifts amusing at the Speech Club Christmas Party. 3. Proud band members gather around the cake that represents their hours of hard work and dedication. 4. Mustang Dribblers do Their Thing

Winter is usually thought of as "long-john" time, but at Overton there is a group of students who are still running around in shorts. They are, of course, members of the basketball teams! Jr. High and High School students alike are very involved in this sport. The students participating in this sport gave their very best at every game and two members of the girls Varsity team won the honor of being named on the All-District Team. These were Rexann Grandstaff and Jackie Garland. Congratulations girls!

1. Rexann Grandstaff dribbles past her opponents. 2. Junior Varsity's Allen Cook goes up for the tip-off. 3. Robin Shellman goes for "two". 4. State Competitors In Golf

Every spring flowers bloom, birds sing, grass grows, and students get their tennis shoes, golf clubs, and tennis raquets out of their closet or from under their beds-where they have been collecting dust all winter. This year the focus was on the golf team. They placed 1st in District. The tournament was held at the Overton Golf Course. The team then went to Regional, held at the Alpine Golf Course in Longview, where they placed qualifying them for State Competition in Austin. Shannon Florey won honors for medalist at the levels of competition.

Billie Jackson: A Teacher With "Class"!

It is a tradition for the Los Tejas Staff to recognize one special faculty member each year that has given of themselves unselfishly to the students and activities at Overton High School. This year Mrs. Billie Jackson is the focus of attention.

Mrs. Jackson began teaching at Overton in 1970. She teaches Home Economics and Home and Family Living, as well as sponsors the Future Homemakers of America and the Eighth Grade Class.
